

Wholesale Banking Conditions

General Part

1. Scope and applicable conditions

- 1.1. These Conditions apply to the relationship between the Client and ING and to all Services provided by ING. Additional conditions may apply to specific Services.
- 1.2. The Schedules to these Conditions form an integral part of the Conditions. In the event of a conflict between an Agreement and these Conditions, the Agreement prevails. In the event of a conflict between the General Part of these Conditions (including country specific conditions relating to this General Part) and a Schedule (including country specific conditions relating to such Schedule) then the provisions of the Schedule shall prevail. Country specific conditions will prevail over the non-country specific conditions. In case additional conditions apply regarding a specific Service such additional conditions will, unless indicated otherwise, prevail in case of a conflict with these Conditions.
- 1.3. If these Conditions are provided to the Client in another language than English the English language version will prevail.

2. Availability and amendments

- 2.1. If requested ING will provide copies of the relevant Services Documents on paper or on another durable medium.
- 2.2. ING may change these Conditions and other Services Documents with a two months' notice period. The Client will be deemed to have accepted the change, unless it has terminated in writing the relevant Services Document with effect prior to the proposed effective date of the change. Such termination is free of charge. If the Client chooses to so terminate, such Services Document shall terminate on the effective date of the amendments. On such date all claims of ING vis-à-vis the Client under such Services Document become immediately due and payable.
For this Clause any change to any Services Document (including a Schedule or related country specific provisions), will only be considered a change to such document if the Client obtains the relevant Service from the concerning ING Office and only such Client will be informed accordingly.
Notwithstanding the foregoing, operational procedures, instructions and manuals may be changed by ING with immediate effect.
- 2.3. ING has the right to unilaterally change (the functions within) a Service with immediate effect if it cannot reasonably be expected that ING continues to provide such Service in this manner. ING will not be liable to the Client or any third party for any loss and/or damage resulting thereof.

3. General obligations and undertakings

- 3.1. The Client can use a Service only after the application and, if applicable, opening process has been completed to ING's satisfaction. The Client represents that it is not a Consumer and that the Services shall only be used for purposes pertaining to the Client's profession, trade or business.
- 3.2. The Client shall comply with all security procedures and provisions supplied by ING in accordance with the Services. If there are reasonable grounds to suspect a security breach then the Client must inform ING immediately.
- 3.3. The Client shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including all license requirements and anti-money-laundering, anti-terrorism financing and sanctions laws and regulations. The Client shall not use the Services for activities or purposes that are in violation of any law or regulation, or that can have a detrimental effect on the reputation of ING or on the integrity of the financial system.
- 3.4. The Client agrees to co-operate with ING and provide any information and documents and do all such acts ING requires (i) by law, regulation or according to ING's internal policies for the provision of the Services, (ii) to comply with requests of local and foreign (tax) authorities, (iii) to check the Client's identity, its activities and objectives and (iv) to explain the reasons for the (intended) use of a Service, the origin of funds used for a Service or transaction and the economic nature of (the use of) a Service or transaction.

- 3.5. When dealing with ING the Client and each User is obliged to identify itself. At ING's first request the Client must provide ING with a specimen of its and each User current handwritten signatures.
- 3.6. The Client must promptly, and ultimately within 30 calendar days, inform ING in writing of any changes in the information supplied to ING, including but not limited to its change in name, legal address or contact details, change in the authority of a User or legal representative or if the Client has become a Consumer, and any documents evidencing such change. ING may rely upon the information provided by the Client until it receives a notice of change or update of the information provided.
- 3.7. Each ING Office must as soon as possible be notified in writing or, if such option is available, via an ING Channel, if the Client is no longer in existence or no longer authorised to dispose of or operate a Service, failing which ING may (continue to) perform its obligations and execute or forward Instructions received from or on behalf of the Client. In addition, ING may (continue to) execute, or forward an Instruction it received prior to or shortly after ING was notified in writing of aforementioned events if ING cannot reasonably prevent the execution or forwarding thereof. After the notice of an event as indicated in this sub-Clause, ING may require that the person who claims to be authorised to perform (legal) acts on behalf of (the estate of) the Client submits proof thereof in form and substance acceptable to ING.
- 3.8. If at any time the Client ascertains that all or any part of a Service is unavailable and/or not working properly it will promptly inform ING thereof.
- 3.9. The Client acknowledges that ING does not provide any tax or legal advice, and ING recommends that the Client takes advice from a tax or legal expert in case of any doubt with respect to the tax, fiscal and/or legal obligations of the Client.

4. Electronic agreements, communication and signature

- 4.1. The Client may electronically agree to obtain (further) Services from ING if and to the extent so offered. It will be indicated per Service which requirements have to be fulfilled and when the agreement is effective.
- 4.2. For all Instructions, agreements and communications issued or agreed upon by electronic means, the Client agrees that its Electronic Signature, or that of a User on the Client's behalf, constitutes proof of its consent and its identity and that it has the same evidential value as a document signed by the Client or User with its handwritten signature.
- 4.3. The Client agrees that Services Documents (including any amendments thereto) and all documents, information and/or conditions as referred to therein may be provided to the Client by electronic means whether or not the Agreement has been concluded electronically.

5. Use of an Authorisation Instrument

- 5.1. The Services Documents applicable to an Authorisation Instrument specify which personalised device(s) and/or set of procedures form an Authorisation Instrument.
- 5.2. The Client shall use an Authorisation Instrument in accordance with the Services Documents and ING's instructions or information on the use thereof.
- 5.3. An Authorisation Instrument is, unless indicated otherwise, strictly personal and non-transferable and may not be changed, copied or reproduced.

- 5.4. ING may assign a validity period to an Authorisation Instrument and ING is entitled to shorten or extend such validity period at any time.
- 5.5. If an Authorisation Instrument is provided by a third party, ING is not a party to the agreement between the Client and such third party and all costs relating thereto shall be for the Client's account. ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage, of any nature whatsoever, incurred by the Client relating to the services offered by such third party.
- 5.6. The Client shall upon receipt of an Authorisation Instrument take all measures required by ING to keep the Authorisation Instrument and its personalised security features safe. The Client shall furthermore take any measure that can reasonably be expected to ensure the security of the personalised security features and shall keep these features, including its Electronic Signature and password, secret. The Client shall store the Authorisation Instrument in a place to which unauthorised parties have no access. Subject to evidence to the contrary, the fact that a personalised security feature and/or Authorisation Instrument is used by a third party will constitute proof that the Client has failed to keep or store such items safe and secure and that they were accessible to third parties. The Client shall ensure that Users shall observe and comply with all obligations of this Clause 5.
- 5.7. The Client shall take note of the information provided by ING in relation to the secure use of an Authorisation Instrument and the measures that the Client must take to prevent fraud or other misuse of such Authorisation Instrument and shall act, and shall ensure that Users shall act, in accordance with such information. ING may change such information and in urgent situations such changes can be applied by ING with immediate effect. ING will inform the Client accordingly.
- 5.8. The Client shall, and shall ensure that a User shall:
- (i) without undue delay notify ING, on becoming aware of (a) any loss, theft, misappropriation or unauthorised use of (a personalised security feature of) an Authorisation Instrument or (b) a technical incident or any other fault which might jeopardise the security of (a personalised security feature of) an Authorisation Instrument. The means of notification and the contact details of ING for such notification can be found on the Website, in the applicable Services Document, an ING Channel or as otherwise communicated by ING. A failure to notify ING without undue delay constitutes gross negligence of the Client, and
 - (ii) immediately send a confirmation in writing to ING of any telephonic notification, which written confirmation must contain the date, time and any further relevant information of such notification.
- 6. Blocking
- 6.1. ING is, unless prohibited by applicable law, authorised to block or suspend an Authorisation Instrument or (access to) any Service:
- (i) in case of the non-compliance with the instructions and requirements as referred to in Clause 17 of this General Part,
 - (ii) in case of any of the events as indicated in Clause 26 of this General Part, or
 - (iii) for reasons relating to security or the suspicion of improper, unauthorised or fraudulent access or use of such Authorisation Instrument or Service.
- 6.2. The Client may request ING to block its or a User's Authorisation Instrument or (access to) any Service and a User may request to block its Authorisation Instrument or (access to) any Service. Notwithstanding any blocking request ING may continue the execution or forwarding of Instructions that have been given to ING by such Client or User prior to or shortly after receiving such blocking request if ING cannot reasonably prevent the execution or forwarding thereof.
- 6.3. Upon becoming aware of any improper, unauthorised or fraudulent access or use of an Authorisation Instrument or Service by a User or a third party, the Client shall immediately terminate or block such person's access to and use of the Authorisation Instrument or Service and shall inform ING promptly thereof. ING is not liable for any loss and/or damage incurred by the Client. The Client will indemnify ING for any loss and/or damage incurred, as a result of the failure by the Client to comply with this Clause.
- 6.4. ING is not liable for any loss and/or damage incurred by the Client or a third party as a result of the blockage or a suspension of an Authorisation Instrument or (access to) a Service.
- 6.5. In case of a blockage by ING, ING shall, where possible prior to such blockage, inform the Client of such blockage and the reasons thereof, unless such communication would compromise objectively justified security reasons or is restricted or prohibited by applicable laws or regulations.
- 6.6. ING shall unblock (access to) a Service or Authorisation Instrument, or replace the latter by a new Authorisation Instrument, as soon as ING, in its sole discretion, determines there are no longer grounds for such blockage or suspension to stay in effect.
- 7. App and ING Channel
- If agreed, the Client may use an App or ING Channel to access and use Services. If accessed via an App Services might be limited. Additional conditions apply to the use of an ING Channel or App.
- 8. Conditional credit
- 8.1. Any amount or asset made available to the Client by or via ING, whether in cash, by means of a book entry into an account or by any other method, pursuant to a transaction where settlement is not yet known or final or before ING has received such amount or asset, constitutes an advance made by ING to the Client subject to the due performance of such transaction.
- 8.2. The due performance condition shall be fulfilled by the settlement of the transaction and/or the receipt by ING of such amount or asset free at its disposal within a reasonable period. In the absence of such settlement, the Client will immediately repay ING an amount equal to the (value of the) asset or amount it has received, plus applicable interest.
- 9. Fees and expenses
- 9.1. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Tariff Brochure lays out the fees and costs applicable to the Services used by the Client. The Tariff Brochure can be found at www.ingpcm.com/en/tariffs-and-conditions-for-payment-services. ING may change its Tariffs and its Tariff Brochure and such changes can be applied with immediate effect and without prior notice. The Client is also obliged to pay ING the third party fees and costs charged to ING regarding the Services used by the Client.
- 9.2. The Client must maintain an Available Balance which is sufficient to meet its financial obligations towards ING at the time that these obligations shall be due and payable. If the Client fails to pay an amount on the due date ING shall be entitled to charge default interest. Information regarding the applicable rate can be found in the Tariff Brochure and/or the Website of the ING Office.
- 9.3. ING is authorised, irrespective of the Available Balance and irrespective of whether this would generate an unauthorised Debit Balance, to debit the following from an Account:
- (i) Tariffs for the Services and the provision of information in regard to the Services;
 - (ii) Payment Transactions;
 - (iii) (default) interest;
 - (iv) third party fees and cost in accordance with Clause 9.1 of this General Part; and
 - (v) any other financial obligation, in whatever name or form, towards ING.

- 9.4. All payments payable to ING shall be calculated and made without set-off, deduction or counterclaim.
- 9.5. Unless explicitly indicated otherwise all amounts are exclusive of any value added tax. If value added tax is chargeable the Client shall pay this to ING.
- 9.6. All taxes and levies – under whatever name and levied by whomever – that concern the relationship between the Client and ING are for the Client's account. The Client acknowledges that ING may need to (be required to) collect from the Client taxes, levies or similar charges on payments made to the Client or in respect of transactions entered into by the Client. If the Client is compelled by law or regulation to withhold or deduct any sum from any amount payable to ING, the Client will pay such additional amounts as may be needed for ING to receive the full amount had no such withholding or deduction been required.

10. Statements, bank records and recordings

- 10.1. The Client accepts full responsibility for monitoring all information, records and transaction history and overviews sent by ING. The Client is obliged to verify whether the Services have been executed by ING correctly. If the Client contests any of the information it must inform ING immediately. The Client is deemed to accept the accuracy of the information if the Client fails to object to ING within two months of receipt.
- 10.2. If the Client contests any of the information regarding or relating to a Service it should follow the procedure as indicated in the applicable Services Documents.
- 10.3. The information contained in ING's records is deemed to constitute conclusive evidence between ING and the Client, unless the Client provides evidence to the contrary. ING is not required to retain its records for a period longer than the statutory record retention period.
- 10.4. Every form of communication relating to products and services of ING and third parties and any other form of written or electronic communication between the Client and ING can be evidenced by ING by a written or electronic reproduction and/or copy of this communication from ING's systems. Such communication and reproductions or copies thereof provide conclusive evidence between ING and the Client, unless the Client provides evidence to the contrary.
- 10.5. ING is entitled to record telephone conversations in order to assist in the processing of Instructions, retaining of evidence, monitoring of services and verifying the validity of Instructions.
- 10.6. If computational errors occur in the data and information provided or made available by or on behalf of ING, ING has the right to rectify these computational errors, also after the period of two months has expired.
- 10.7. The Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that ING may rely on information obtained from a third party service provider and that ING will not be responsible for the accuracy, completeness or timeliness of information obtained from a third party.

11. Power of attorney

- 11.1. Any power of attorney granted to a User to do business with ING on the Client's behalf must be in a form and format acceptable to ING. The power of attorney is, unless otherwise stipulated in such power of attorney, governed by the laws of the country of incorporation of the Client. The User so authorised may perform all acts indicated in the power of attorney in the name and for the account of the Client regardless of any conflict of interest of the User. The Client hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives any defence or claim it may have based on the existence of any such conflict.
- 11.2. Any power of attorney granted via an ING Channel is granted in accordance with and subject to these Conditions.
- 11.3. The Client shall ensure that Users are bound by and shall observe and comply with all obligations as indicated in the relevant Services Documents. The Client shall remain liable to ING for all obligations pursuant to the Services Documents,

- including all acts and inactions of Users. Each User is, unless explicitly otherwise indicated in the power of attorney, fully competent to severally perform the authorised acts thereunder.
- 11.4. Each power of attorney is valid until revoked. The Client must immediately notify ING in a form acceptable to ING of the revocation, expiry or amendment of a power of attorney regarding any User. Until ING receives such notification any power of attorney shall, irrespective of any registration with any public record of the details and/or any changes to it, remain in full force and effect. ING may continue the execution or forwarding of Instructions that have been given to ING by such User prior to or shortly after ING has received such notification if ING cannot reasonably prevent the execution or forwarding thereof. The revocation, expiry or amendment of a power of attorney does not have any consequences for nor shall affect (the validity of) any (i) Instruction with a scheduled execution date after the revocation, expiry or amendment, or (ii) power of attorney granted by a User prior to such revocation, expiry or amendment.
- 11.5. The Client is, if so indicated by ING, obliged to for and on behalf of ING identify and verify the identity (by means of a valid identification document) each User and, if applicable, verify and validate the specimen signature of such User. The Client undertakes to securely store for a minimum period of seven years after the revocation or expiry of the relevant power of attorney all data regarding the identity and the verification and validation of the signature of each User. At ING's request the Client will provide such data in a format accessible to ING. ING is authorised to audit, examine and make copies of the data kept by the Client regarding the foregoing, and if so requested the Client must grant ING access to its premises and relevant data and records.
- 11.6. Upon ING's request the Client shall (i) confirm or ratify all acts that any User will have performed pursuant to and within the powers conferred by any power of attorney and (ii) promptly and duly execute all such documents and instruments, enter into such agreements and do all such acts and things as ING may reasonably determine as necessary in order to give effect to the provisions of this Clause.

12. Communication

- 12.1. ING has the right, at ING's discretion and irrespective of the manner in which the Agreement was concluded, to communicate with the Client in writing, verbally, via telecommunications (including the speaking computer or text messages) or electronically (including e-mail, app, Website or Channel, whether or not with the addition of an internet link).
- 12.2. ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage resulting from the use of any form of communication by ING or the Client, including, but not limited to, loss or damage resulting from failure or delay in delivery, interception or manipulation by third parties or by computer programs used for electronic communications and transmission of Viruses.
- 12.3. The contact details of the Client and ING for any communication to be made or delivered under or in connection with any Service will be as stated in the Agreement, any other applicable Services Document or as otherwise updated by the Client vis-a-vis ING. The Client shall notify ING in advance of amended contact details by not less than five Business Days.
- 12.4. Any notice or communication sent by ING to the Client shall be deemed to have been duly given or made (a) in the case of delivery by hand, when delivered, (b) in the case of delivery by mail, three days after being deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, or (c) in the case of delivery by facsimile or other electronic transmission, when sent.
- 12.5. Unless agreed otherwise, the communication between ING and the Client will take place in the English language or, at ING's discretion, the language of the jurisdiction of the ING Office.
- 12.6. ING may require that foreign documents are legalised and bear an apostille and that communications and documents from the Client which are in a language other than agreed under Clause

12.5 of this General part are at the Client's expense translated by a sworn translator acceptable to ING.

13. Use of forms and formats

- 13.1. With respect to the Services, the Client is required to make use of the (hardcopy, online or electronic) forms and formats, if any, made available or as indicated by ING, duly completed, legible and bearing the handwritten or Electronic Signature, or any other form of identification as required by ING, whatever is applicable. ING may refuse to accept any document or execute any Instruction if it is not received in the required form or format, incomplete or the signature is not verified or does not match the specimen signature in ING's records. ING is authorised to act upon and rely on information contained in a form or Instruction from the Client.
- 13.2. ING has the right to declare (instruction) forms and formats invalid and to replace these forms or formats. If so, ING will inform the Client of any new form or format to be used. ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage that the Client incurs due to the (instruction) forms or formats being declared invalid or used incorrectly.

14. Processing of information and bank secrecy

- 14.1. ING will obtain, use or otherwise process data, documents and information relating to the relationship with the Client, User and/or the Services for the provision of the Services and for internal analysis and supervision, risk management, product development, marketing activities, centralisation of storage, to safeguard ING's security and integrity, to comply with legal obligations and for any other purpose as communicated by ING. The obtaining, using and processing of Personal Data is subject to Clause 15 of this General Part.
- 14.2. To the extent permitted by any applicable law or regulation, the Client waives any bank secrecy, if any, and agrees with the transferring, processing and disclosure by ING of any data, documents and information obtained from or relating to the Client and any Services (i) within ING or any third party service provider for any of the purposes as indicated in this Clause (ii) to any third party for any of the purposes as indicated in Clause 23.1 and 24.1 of the General Part (iii) to any applicable credit register, (iv) if required for the providing of Services to the Client or any of its affiliates, to affiliates of the Client and (v) as permitted or required by any applicable law or regulation, legal process, regulatory action, order, judgement or decree of a court or (vi) to enable ING to comply with requests from local and foreign (tax) authorities.

15. Personal Data protection

- 15.1. In addition to clause 14 of this General Part, with regard to the obtaining, using and processing of Personal Data, the Client acknowledges that Personal Data may be processed, transferred and disclosed outside of the ING Office that obtained such data and represents and warrants (i) that it has received and read the Privacy Statements of the ING Offices (which is hereby incorporated by reference) and (ii) that it will inform and refer all authorised representatives, Users and (other) natural persons interacting on behalf of the Client with ING to this Clause 15 and the applicable Privacy Statements. The applicable Privacy Statements can be found on www.ingwb.com/about-ing-wb/privacy-statements.
- 15.2. ING processes Personal Data in accordance with the applicable personal data protection laws and regulations and ING's "Global Data Protection Policy for Client, supplier and business partner data" (as from time to time amended or replaced by a similar global policy). The policy was approved by the data protection authorities in the applicable EU Member States. The Global Data Protection Policy can be found on www.ingwb.com/about-ing-wb/privacy-statements.

16. Ownership and intellectual property rights

- 16.1. The Client is granted a strictly personal, non-exclusive and non-transferable licence to, if applicable, use and install software provided by ING for the Services. However, no property or intellectual rights are transferred to the Client. This licence provides only the right to install the software on the Client's computer and to use it for a Service in accordance with the purposes as indicated in the applicable Services Documents or as otherwise indicated by ING and is limited to the period the Client is authorised to use the Service.
- 16.2. ING and the third party, if any, who has conferred the right of use on ING retains all rights, including ownership, copyrights and intellectual property rights, of all ING Goods as well as to all information, recommendation and/or (other) services provided.
- 16.3. The Client is not permitted to change, copy, distribute, transfer, display, publish, sell or licence the (content of the) ING Goods, to produce or use any works derived from it or to create any link, hypertext or deep link from or to an ING Channel, Service or Website.
- 16.4. The trade names, brands and logos (or signs similar thereto) from ING and appearing on or in the Services and/or ING Goods are the property of ING. The Client is not permitted to use any of such trade names, brands and logos without prior written consent of ING.
- 16.5. The Client will immediately destroy or return the ING Goods, its personalised security features and/or any instruments for using a Service and/or accessing an ING Channel (which are capable of being returned) to ING, if requested to do so or if the Client is no longer authorised to use the applicable Service.

17. System requirements and security

- 17.1. The Client shall comply with and act upon the most recent instructions and system, software and other requirements for implementing, accessing and using a Service as stated by ING. ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage incurred by the Client as a result of (i) changes to the software or equipment supplied by ING or a third party, (ii) improper functioning of equipment or software belonging to the Client or User (iii) failure to act upon instructions of ING or (iv) failure to comply with the conditions for implementation, access and use of a Service.
- 17.2. The Client may need to have internet access, access to an electronic communication network or software to be able to use a Service. ING is not a party to any agreement in this respect between the Client and its provider. All costs of access to and use of the services offered by these providers will be for the Client's account and ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage incurred by the Client relating to the services offered by those providers.
- 17.3. The Client is responsible for the security of the systems and devices used to access a Service. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Client is obliged to ensure that up-to-date anti-Virus software, anti-spyware software, firewall software or any other relevant security tools are used to ensure the security of (the access to) a Service. Should the Client discover or suspect a Virus, spyware or unauthorised access to a Service the Client shall inform ING without delay and shall immediately take all necessary measures to prevent any loss and/or damage. ING reserves the right to block access to (part of) a Service following any such report.
- 17.4. The Client shall ensure that correct log-off procedures are followed when exiting or leaving unattended a computer or other applicable device with which a Service is used or accessed. The Client shall further take all reasonable precautions to prevent unauthorised use of a Service and the operating stations or IT systems from which a Service can be accessed.

18. Joint and severability

- 18.1. The obligations of each ING Office under the Services Documents are separate and independent obligations. Failure by an ING Office to perform its obligations does not affect the obligations of any other party under the Services Documents.

No ING Office is responsible for the obligations of any other ING Office under the Services Documents.

- 18.2. Unless otherwise instructed by ING, any debt arising under the Services Documents to a specific ING Office can only be repaid to that ING Office.
- 18.3. If the Client is, in whatever capacity, a joint beneficiary of a Service or a joint holder of an account or asset, it is, together with such other beneficiaries or holders, jointly and severally bound by and liable towards ING for all related obligations. The Client and each such person is, unless agreed otherwise, individually authorised to issue Instructions towards ING regarding such Service, account or asset.

19. Security Interest and set-off

- 19.1. In addition to any other Security Interest granted to ING, the Client undertakes to grant a Security Interest and herewith grants a Security Interest over all present and future (i) claims the Client now or at any time, has or acquires against the ING Office and (ii) financial instruments, monies, documents and other goods held by ING, or a third party on behalf of ING, for or on behalf of the Client, as security for all existing and (contingent) future amounts the Client owes to the ING Office at any given moment which Security Interest ING herewith accepts.
- 19.2. The Client grants ING an irrevocable power of attorney, with the right of substitution, to grant, create, register and/or perfect a Security Interest over the claims as stated in Clause 19.1 to itself in the name of the Client.
- 19.3. The Client represents and warrants that it is authorised to grant and create the Security Interest and that the claims in question are or will be free of rights and claims of other parties than ING.
- 19.4. The Client undertakes vis-à-vis ING to provide (additional) collateral and Security Interests for all existing and future amounts that the Client owes to ING, on any account whatsoever, and to sign any agreement or any other documents that may be required in connection with the granting and the creation thereof, at the first request of ING and to the ING's satisfaction.
- 19.5. Each ING Office shall at all times be entitled to set-off all and any of its claims on the Client, whether or not due and payable and whether or not contingent, against any claims the Client has on such ING Office, whether due and payable or not, regardless of the currency in which such claims are denominated. If however the Client's claim on ING or ING's claim on the Client is not yet due and payable, ING shall not exercise its right of set-off except upon the occurrence of one of the following events, which shall render such claim due and payable: in the event of an attachment or garnishment being levied upon the Client's claim on ING, in case recovery is being sought from such debt in any other way, in the event that a Security Interest or other restricted right is created thereon, the Client assigns its claims on ING to a third party, the Client is declared bankrupt, has entered into a moratorium of payments or another insolvency regulation or statutory debt repayment arrangement applies to the Client. Debts expressed in a foreign currency shall be set-off at the exchange rate on the day of set-off as determined by ING. If possible, ING shall inform the Client in advance that it intends to exercise its right of set-off.
- 19.6. At the request of ING, the Client shall promptly and duly enter into such further agreements, execute all such other documents and instruments and do all such other registrations, acts and things as ING may reasonably determine as necessary or desirable in order to give effect to the provisions of this Clause.
- 19.7. If there are in one jurisdiction more offices from the same ING legal entity a reference to ING Office shall in this Clause be construed as a reference to any and all ING offices of such legal entity in the same jurisdiction.

20. Liability

- 20.1. Without prejudice to any other limitations of liability as stipulated in the Services Documents, ING will only be liable to the Client for any direct loss and/or damage, regardless of whether ING's liability is asserted on the basis of the Services Documents, the provision of Services, claim in contract, tort (including negligence), under an indemnity, breach of statutory duty or otherwise.
- 20.2. For the avoidance of doubt ING will not be liable for any indirect or consequential loss or damage. Indirect and consequential loss or damage includes, but is not limited to, damage to reputation, costs of procuring an equivalent service or product and loss of profit, business, business opportunity, goodwill, data, anticipated savings, customers and contracts, and regardless whether or not such loss or damage was foreseeable.
- 20.3. ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage incurred by the Client as a result of the non or defective execution of any Instruction or performance of any Service if this is caused by (the introduction of or amendment to) any law, order, regulation, decree or administrative action and/or any interference or act or omission by or under the order of a government, central bank or any other body claiming such authority. Furthermore ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage incurred by the Client as a result of the confiscation, nationalization, requisition, sequestration, seizure, deprivation of the Account, Balance or any (other) asset or instrument by the government, central bank or any other body claiming such authority in the country of the relevant currency or where such Account, asset or instrument is held.
- 20.4. Subject to Clause 20.2 of the General Part, ING does not exclude any liability under these Conditions for loss and/or damage caused by ING's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.
- 20.5. ING does neither warrant that the facilities for providing a Service will be available, uninterrupted or complete at all times nor that such facilities shall be free from errors, faults or Viruses. ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage resulting from the use of (or inability to use) a Service, including losses or damages caused by Viruses.
- 20.6. The Website or any Service may provide links to external internet sites operated by a third party or said sites may contain links to the Website or a Service. ING will not be liable for the operation, use or content of such third party internet sites.

21. Indemnity

The Client will indemnify ING against any direct, indirect and/or consequential loss, damage, cost and expense (including legal expenses) incurred by ING and arising from or in connection with:

25. Partial invalidity/unenforceability

If at any time any provision of the Services Documents is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect under any law or regulation of any jurisdiction, the legality, validity or enforceability of the other provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

- 26.1. The term of the Agreement regarding each Service will be as indicated in the applicable Service Document. If no specific term is indicated the Agreement for such Service will be entered into for an indefinite period of time and the Client may terminate such Service in writing with a one calendar month notice period. The notice period will be calculated from the first day of the calendar month following receipt of such notice of termination. 26.4. Upon termination, all Tariffs and outstanding obligations of the Client relating to such Service are immediately due and payable, whether or not relating to transactions taking place before or after termination, without prior written notice being required. Any Tariffs paid in advance for said period will not be reimbursed.

26.5. Rights and obligations under the Services Documents and Services which by their nature should survive, including, but not limited to, any and all indemnification provisions, will remain in effect after termination or expiration thereof.

Schedule Payment Services

1 Scope

- 1.1 Payment Services are intended for transfers, deposits, receipt and withdrawal of funds pertaining to the profession or business of the Accountholder.
- 1.2 The conditions in the General Part and this Schedule apply to Payment Services.
- 1.3 Parties acknowledge that ING, when providing Payment Services, must comply with the rules and regulations of third parties such as the European Payments Council or any other relevant payment scheme, authority or body. In the event of a discrepancy between a Services Document and the rules and regulations of such third party, ING will provide the Payment Services in accordance with the rules of such third party.

2 Payment Orders

- 2.1 Information on the manner in which the Client can give Payment Orders to ING is included in the relevant Services Documents.
- 2.2 The Client shall provide ING with complete, correct, unambiguous and accurate Payment Orders. ING is authorised to act upon and rely on information contained in a Payment Order.
- 2.3 Unless agreed otherwise, the Client gives its consent to a Payment Order by entering its Electronic Signature or other agreed means of authorisation and submitting it or otherwise completing the initiation. If consent by more than one User is required this shall be given once all relevant Users have entered their Electronic Signature or other means of authorisation.
- 2.4 If a third party Channel is used for the initiation of a Payment Order, the Client is deemed to have consented to the execution of the Payment Order once ING has received the concerning Payment Order.
- 2.5 ING is authorised to issue further instructions and set requirements and limitations regarding the use and form of any Payment Order.
- 2.6 ING shall execute Payment Orders on the basis of the Unique Identifier and not based on the name and/or address of the Beneficiary. A Payment Order is deemed to be executed correctly if ING executes it on the basis of the Unique Identifier. Neither the name of the Client or Beneficiary, nor their address, is part of the Unique Identifier even when such information is required e.g. for control purposes pursuant to laws or regulations.
- 2.7 ING shall have no obligation to check any discrepancies between the Unique Identifier provided by the Client and other details that may identify the Beneficiary such as its name or address. ING is not liable for the consequences of the execution of a Payment Order if the Unique Identifier provided by the Client does not belong to the Beneficiary as intended by the Client. However, if requested, ING shall make a reasonable effort to recover the monies in connection with the Payment Transaction. Any reasonable costs incurred by ING relating to such recovery may be charged to the Client.
- 2.8 Each (manner to initiate a) Payment Order will be subject to restrictions as set out by ING in the Services Documents. Not all manners to initiate Payment Orders are available to each Client and a Client can only use a manner to initiate a Payment Order if so approved by ING.

3 Time of receipt and start of execution Payment Orders and Payment Transactions

- 3.1 A Cut-off Time applies with respect to the start of the execution of Payment Orders. Information on the Cut-off Times and other times prior to which a Payment Order has to be received by ING are available in the Tariff Brochure at www.ingpcm.com/en/tariffs-and-conditions-for-payment-services or as otherwise communicated by ING.

Changes in the Cut-off Times can be applied with immediate effect and without prior notice.

- 3.2 The point in time of receipt of a Payment Order, whether or not through a Channel, is deemed to be the point in time that ING has recorded that it has been received and the Client has consented to it.
- 3.3 The execution period of a Payment Order as contemplated in Clause 4 of this Schedule shall start on the day of receipt provided that such Payment Order is received on a Business Day and before the relevant Cut-off Time. In the event that the Payment Order is received not on a Business Day or after the relevant Cut-off Time, the Payment Order is deemed to have been received on the following Business Day. ING may make a reservation for the Payment Order in accordance with Clause 8 of this Schedule.
- 3.4 The Client may request, in the manner as set out and indicated by ING, that execution of a Payment Order shall start on a specific day, at the end of a certain period or, if so agreed by ING, on the day on which the Client has placed funds at ING's disposal. The point in time of receipt of such Payment Order will be considered to be the agreed day for execution of the Payment Order. If the requested day is not a Business Day for the ING Office, the Payment Order will be deemed to have been received on the following Business Day. If a calendar month has fewer days than the date upon which the execution of a Payment Order to transfer a specified amount periodically is scheduled, the execution shall start on the last Business Day of that month.
- 3.5 Cut-off Times also apply for incoming Payment Transactions. If such transaction is not received on a Business Day or is received after the relevant Cut-off Time it is deemed to have been received on the following Business Day.

4 Maximum execution time of Payment Transactions

- 4.1 Payment Transactions in the lawful currency of the EEA country where the Account is held, to an account held with a PSP located in the same country, as well as Payment Transactions in euros to an account held with a PSP located in an EEA or SEPA Country shall be credited to the account of the PSP of the Beneficiary at the latest by the end of the following Business Day following the point in time of receipt of the Payment Order as specified in Clause 3 of this Schedule.
- 4.2 If a Payment Transaction referred to in Clause 4.1 above is initiated on paper, the execution period shall be extended by one Business Day.
- 4.3 Payment Transactions in the currency of an EEA country which does not have the euro as its currency, to an account held with a PSP located in an EEA country shall be credited to the account of the PSP of the Beneficiary at the latest by the end of the fourth Business Day following the point in time of receipt of the Payment Order as specified in Clause 3 of this Schedule.
- 4.4 Other execution periods apply to Payment Transactions that do not fall under Clauses 4.1, 4.2 or 4.3 of this Schedule. More information can be found in the Tariff Brochure or obtained from ING.

5 Book Date and Value Date

- 5.1 Subject to Clause 3 of this Schedule, when ING receives an amount in euros or in another EEA currency that is to be credited to the Account, ING shall credit this amount on the same Business Day. In that case, the Value Date is the same as the Book Date. When ING receives an amount in a non-EEA currency to be credited to the Account, the Book Date can differ from the Value Date.
- 5.2 In addition to Clause 8 of the General Part, when ING receives a notification to credit an amount to the Account, ING may credit such amount before ING actually receives it. In that case, the Book Date is the Business Day upon which the amount is credited to the Account and the Value Date is the Business Day upon which ING actually receives such amount and is at ING's disposal. In the period between the Book Date and the Value Date, the credited amount is not taken into account for the calculation of interest. If monies are withdrawn or debited from the Account during this period such that a Debit Balance would have arisen had ING not credited the amount before actually receiving it, the Client is obliged to pay debit interest over this Debit Balance.

In case ING does not unconditionally receive the relevant amount free at its disposal ING may, without prior notification, reverse the credit entry by debiting the same amount from the Account. If the amount received or to be received was converted into another currency when crediting the Account, ING may make the debit entry in such other currency at an exchange rate as determined by ING at the time of execution. All costs in connection with the reversal are for the Client's account.

- 5.3 When ING executes a Payment Transaction from the Account, ING debits the Account on the Business Day on which ING has started the execution in accordance with Clause 3 of this Schedule. In that case, the Value Date is the same date as the Book Date.

6 Revocation of Payment Orders

Unless otherwise stipulated in the Services Documents, Payment Orders are irrevocable. However, Payment Orders received by ING through a Channel with a scheduled execution date may be revoked by the Client provided that such revocation has been received by ING via the concerning Channel and before the Cut-off Time on the Business Day preceding the scheduled execution date. Information on the manner in which a Payment Order must be revoked is included in the relevant Services Documents. Payment Orders with a scheduled execution date will not automatically be revoked by the termination of the ING Channel through which such Payment Order was initiated.

7 Refusal, suspension and forwarding of Payment Orders

- 7.1 ING may (fully or partially) (a) refuse to execute or forward or (b) suspend execution or forwarding of any Payment Order, if:
- (i) the Payment Order is incomplete, incorrect or ambiguous or not in line with an agreed Service;
 - (ii) there is any doubt as to the validity or legality of the Payment Order or the identity or authority of the person giving it;
 - (iii) the power of attorney of the relevant User has been amended, revoked or is otherwise no longer valid;
 - (iv) the Available Balance on the Account is insufficient or the Payment Order exceeds any applicable limit;
 - (v) the Account is blocked or attached;
 - (vi) a Security Interest, right of set-off or a retention right exists on the related Account;
 - (vii) the Payment Order violates any applicable law or regulation, (inter)national sanction list or ING's internal policy;
 - (viii) the Payment Order violates or breaches any agreement between ING and the Client;
 - (ix) the Payment Order concerns a currency which is not freely available to ING;
 - (x) the Payment Order, whether or not received by ING through a third party Channel, does not comply with the form, format and/or other requirements of ING; or
 - (xi) there is a suspicion of money laundering or fraud or a suspicion of unauthorised or fraudulent use of a Payment Instrument or a Payment Service, or irregularities related to its security, until it is evident that this suspicion is without grounds.
- 7.2 When the Available Balance on the Account is insufficient ING may execute a Payment Order with a scheduled execution date on the next three consecutive Business Days from the initial execution date as soon as the Available Balance is sufficient. Point in time of receipt of such Payment Order is deemed to be the point in time the Available Balance is sufficient to execute such Payment Order. ING will refuse the (execution of the) Payment Order if the Available Balance is still insufficient at the end of the concerning third Business Day.

- 7.3 Unless ING agreed to provide such Service, an ING Office will not execute or forward a received Payment Order regarding an Account held with a third party PSP or another ING Office. ING will not notify the Client in accordance with Clause 7.5 of this Schedule in such an event.
- 7.4 ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage resulting from the non-execution or non-timely execution of the Payment Order as a result of a refusal or suspension in accordance with this Clause 7 or from a reversal of a Direct Debit in accordance with Clause 20.2 of this Schedule.
- 7.5 Unless prohibited by applicable laws or regulations, ING will notify the Client of its refusal or suspension to execute or forward a Payment Order and, if possible, the reasons for the refusal or suspension and the procedure for correcting any factual mistakes that led to the refusal or suspension. ING shall notify the Client as soon as possible and in any case within the time lines for such Payment Order as indicated in Clause 4 of this Schedule. ING may charge the Client for the notification of the refusal or suspension of a Payment Order as specified in the Tariff Brochure.

8 Reservation for Payment Transactions

Reservations can be made by ING for Payment Transactions. In the event that a Payment Transaction is received on a day that is not a Business Day or after the Cut-off Time, a reservation, if any, takes place immediately and the execution will start on the following Business Day. A reservation lowers or raises the Available Balance by the amount of the Payment Transaction to which the reservation relates.

9 Payment Order in writing

- 9.1 A Payment Order in writing must be submitted in accordance with the requirements of ING.
- 9.2 By signing the appropriate form and submitting this form to ING, the Client gives its consent to the execution by ING of the Payment Order specified in the form. A fully completed and signed form constitutes a Payment Instrument.

10 Currency of the Account and execution of foreign currency Payment Orders

- 10.1 Accounts can be opened in the currencies as specified by the ING Office. The Balance on the Account is held in the currency as indicated in the Agreement. Additional conditions may apply regarding Accounts held in currencies other than Euro, United States Dollar, British Pound, Swiss Franc or the lawful currency of the jurisdiction where the Account is held.
- 10.2 Payment Orders can be executed in the currencies as specified and agreed by the ING Office. ING may decline Payment Orders in other currencies.
- 10.3 If the Client pays or receives amounts in a currency that is not the currency of the Account, ING shall debit or credit the Account with the equivalent value of such amounts in the currency of the Account. ING will determine the equivalent value on the basis of an exchange rate set by ING.
- 10.4 ING may, at any time, change exchange rates with immediate effect and without prior notice. Exchange rates are determined by ING on a daily or more frequent basis. Information regarding the applicable rate can be found in the Tariff Brochure and/or the Website of the ING Office.
- 10.5 In order to maintain a Balance and execute Payment Transactions in the currency of the Account, other than the lawful currency of the jurisdiction where the Account is held, ING will hold a correspondent account at a PSP in the country of that currency. If the Agreement between ING and the PSP in respect of the correspondent account ends or is terminated for whatever reason, ING may terminate the Agreement and/or the Payment Service relating to the Account with immediate effect.

11 Payments by third parties

The Client cannot prevent the crediting of payments into its Account.

12 Use of a Payment Instrument

- 12.1 The terms regarding an Authorisation Instrument as incorporated in the General Part also relate to the use of a Payment Instrument. In addition the Client shall, and shall ensure that a User shall, forthwith report to the police and the other appropriate authorities the relevant events as referred to in Clause 5.8 under (i) of the General Part.
- 12.2 Upon receipt of the notification as indicated in Clause 5.8 of the General Part, ING shall take appropriate measures to prevent any (further) misuse of the Payment Instrument. At the Client's request ING will provide it with the means to prove that it made such notification up to 18 months after the notification.

13 Payment Instrument limits

- 13.1 In addition to the Available Balance and possible limits for User(s), limits can apply for specific Payment Instruments. These limits may consist of minimum and/or maximum amounts for which Payment Transactions can be carried out with a Payment Instrument. ING may change such limits and in urgent situations such changes can be applied by ING with immediate effect. ING will inform the Client accordingly.
- 13.2 ING may assign a validity period to a Payment Instrument and ING is entitled to shorten or extend such validity period at any time.

14 Blocking

In addition to Clause 6 of the General Part, ING is authorised to block the Available Balance, a Payment Instrument or (access to a) Service in case of any of the events as indicated in Clause 6 of the General Part or Clause 33 of this Schedule.

15 Unauthorised Payment Transactions

- 15.1 Until the Client has notified ING, the Client will bear any loss and/or damage resulting from unauthorised Payment Transactions that result from the use of a lost or stolen Payment Instrument, personalised security feature of a Payment Instrument or any means of access to an ING Channel or, if the Client or User has failed to keep the personalised security features safe, from the misappropriation or unauthorised use of a Payment Instrument.
- 15.2 Without prejudice to Clause 15.1 and 15.3 of this Schedule and/or any other limitations of liability as stipulated in the Services Documents, when ING is responsible for the execution of a Payment Transaction and has established that such Payment Transaction has not been authorised by the Client, ING will promptly refund the Client the amount of such unauthorised Payment Transaction. Where applicable, ING will restore the Account to the state it would have been in had the unauthorised Payment Transaction not taken place.
- 15.3 The Client shall bear any loss and/or damage relating to any unauthorised Payment Transaction if incurred by acting fraudulently or by failing to fulfil one or more of its obligations under Clause 12 of this Schedule intentionally or with gross negligence. If so, the Client shall be liable for any loss, damage, costs and expenses incurred by ING as a result thereof or to prevent further loss and/or damage to ING or third parties.
- 15.4 When ING demonstrates, in accordance with Clause 10 of the General Part that the Payment Transaction has been executed through the use of a Payment Instrument made available to the Client or User, the Client is deemed to have authorised and consented to the Payment Transaction.

- 15.5 The Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that if ING receives a Payment Order through a third party Channel it may rely that it is issued by authorised persons. The Client may not claim with ING that a Payment Transaction based on such Payment Order was unauthorised.

16 Defective execution of Payment Transactions

- 16.1 Unless agreed otherwise, ING, if responsible for the execution of Payment Orders, will be liable to the Client for the correct execution of such Payment Orders initiated by or on behalf of the Client, unless it can prove to the Client, and where relevant to the Beneficiary's PSP, that the Beneficiary's PSP received the amount of the Payment Transaction within the maximum execution timelines of Clause 4 of this Schedule.
- 16.2 If ING is liable for the defective execution, it will refund the Client the amount of the defectively executed Payment Transaction without undue delay and, where applicable, restore the Account to the state it would have been in had the defectively executed Payment Transaction not taken place.

17 Interest

- 17.1 ING will only credit interest to an Account that has been agreed by ING and the Client to be interest bearing.
- 17.2 Credit interest may be negative, in that case the Client shall pay either interest or a fee for maintaining any Credit Balance to ING on the interest payment dates as agreed upon in the Services Documents.
- 17.3 The Client is obliged to pay debit interest on a Debit Balance. If the relevant reference rate (e.g. Euribor or Libor) is below zero, such reference rate will be deemed zero.
- 17.4 The credit and debit interest rate shall be determined by ING. Changes in the interest rates can be applied with immediate effect and without prior notice.
- 17.5 A Debit Balance exceeding an agreed credit limit (or if none, any Debit Balance) constitutes an unauthorised Debit Balance. An unauthorised Debit Balance is immediately due and payable without prior written notice being required and default debit interest rates apply and shall accrue until repayment of the unauthorised Debit Balance. The existence, even for a short period, of an unauthorised Debit Balance does not imply that the Client has any right to a credit limit.
- 17.6 Information regarding the applicable credit, debit and default interest rates, the interest periods and interest payment dates can be found in the applicable Services Documents, Tariff Brochure and/or the Website of the ING Office.

18 Charging principles for international Payment Transactions

- 18.1 A distinction can be made between three types of charging principles with respect to the costs of the execution of international Payment Transactions:
 - Shared Cost (SHA): the Client pays the costs of ING and the Beneficiary pays the other costs;
 - Our Cost (OUR): the Client, initiating the Payment Order, pays all costs involved;
 - Beneficiary Cost (BEN): the Beneficiary pays all costs involved.
- 18.2 When ING executes an international Payment Transaction from the Account (i) in euro or in another EEA currency to an account held with a PSP located in an EEA country or (ii) in euro to an account held with a PSP located in a SEPA Country, the transaction will be executed by ING based on SHA, even if the Client has opted for OUR or BEN.
- 18.3 International Payment Transactions which do not fall under Clause 18.2 of this Schedule shall be executed by ING in accordance with the choice for OUR, SHA or BEN as specified in the Payment Order. If no choice is made the Payment Transaction will be executed on the basis of SHA.
- 18.4 ING will charge the costs for incoming Payment Transactions to the Client in accordance with the instructions received with that transaction. ING has the right to deduct the amount of the costs from the transaction amount, but shall specify these amounts separately.

19 SEPA Direct Debit Core and SEPA Direct Debit B2B

- 19.1 The Client's Account, provided it is held in euro, can be debited based on a SEPA Direct Debit Core or a SEPA Direct Debit B2B depending on the specifications in the Client's mandate to such Direct Debit.
- 19.2 The Client is deemed to have consented to a Direct Debit by issuing its Direct Debit mandate to the Beneficiary. Mandates can only be revoked with the Beneficiary and not with ING.
- 19.3 The Client must submit to the ING Office where its Account is held, in the manner as required by such ING Office, either a copy of the SEPA Direct Debit B2B mandate or information regarding such mandate. The Client must further submit specific instructions relating to that mandate and any revocations and amendments thereto. All such information must be submitted as soon as possible and at the latest the Business Day preceding the day the (next) Direct Debit under the mandate has been scheduled.

20 Refund of a Direct Debit

- 20.1 ING will refund a Direct Debit at the Client's request submitted in accordance with Clause 20.3 of this Schedule, irrespective of the underlying reason for such request. A SEPA Direct Debit B2B cannot be refunded at the Client's request.
- 20.2 ING has the right at its own initiative to reverse a Direct Debit, including a SEPA Direct Debit B2B.
- 20.3 The Client must, in the manner indicated by ING, file a request to refund a Direct Debit with the ING Office where its Account is held within 8 weeks from the date on which the funds were debited from the Account.
- 20.4 ING shall credit the total amount of the Direct Debit to the Account of the Client within a maximum of ten Business Days after the receipt of a timely and correctly submitted request to refund such Direct Debit.
- 20.5 In the event of a refund or reversal of a Direct Debit, no compensation shall be paid for expenses or interest that has been charged to the Client. Furthermore, no credit interest shall be paid over the amount of the refund or reversal.

21 Unauthorised Direct Debit

In the event that the period to request a refund of a Direct Debit as specified in Clause 20 of this Schedule has expired and the Client claims that the Direct Debit was unauthorised, the procedure set out in Clause 31 of this Schedule will apply. However, the Client cannot claim with ING that a SEPA Direct Debit B2B was unauthorised, if it has failed to inform the ING Office in accordance with Clause 19.3 of this Schedule of specific instructions relating to the relevant mandate or any revocation or amendment thereof in a timely and correct manner.

22 Direct Debit block by the Client

- 22.1 If requested ING will apply to, or remove from the Account, a selective or general Direct Debit block. A selective block can be a blacklist block or a whitelist block. As a result of a blacklist block, any Direct Debit to the credit of a Unique Identifier, Beneficiary identification number, mandate identification number or to the credit of accounts held with a PSP in a certain country will not be executed. As a result of a whitelist block, no Direct Debit will be executed, except for Direct Debits to the credit of those Beneficiary identification numbers (if applicable, in combination with specific mandate identification numbers) which the Client has expressly communicated to ING. As a result of a general block, no Direct Debit will be executed.
- 22.2 The Client must submit a request to apply or revoke a selective or general Direct Debit block in the manner as indicated by ING. A Direct Debit block shall come into effect no later than the following Business Day after receipt of such request provided it has been received before the Cut-off Time.

23 Direct Debit block by ING

ING has the right at its reasonable discretion to apply a general or selective Direct Debit block to the Account. ING shall notify the Client as soon as possible stating the reasons for the block and if necessary which measures the Client should take to lift the block, unless such communication would compromise objectively justified security reasons or is restricted or prohibited by applicable laws or regulations.

24 Cheques

- 24.1 If agreed, the ING Office will make Cheques available to the Client.
- 24.2 The Client is deemed to have consented to a Payment Transaction based on a Cheque by completing and signing the Cheque and providing it to the Beneficiary. The Client's Account will, subject to these Conditions and any limitations regarding the execution of Payment Orders and Payment Transactions, be debited based on such Cheque presented by or on behalf of the Beneficiary to ING for payment.
- 24.3 A completed and signed Cheque is a Payment Instrument. In addition to the provisions relating to Payment Instruments the following applies to the use of Cheques:
- (i) the Client may only use Cheques issued or approved by ING;
 - (ii) the Client may not put a future date on a Cheque;
 - (iii) ING shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred by the Client as a result of ING paying a Cheque before the date inserted on it or as a result of the counterfeiting, forgery or fraudulent use of Cheques;
 - (iv) the Client shall without undue delay notify the ING Office in accordance with Clause 5.8 of the General Part on becoming aware of any loss, theft, misappropriation or unauthorised use of a Cheque;
 - (v) the Client may revoke or stop payment of a Cheque in accordance with and subject to any restrictions in applicable laws and regulations before it has been presented by or on behalf of the Beneficiary to ING for payment. ING may apply a fee for revoking or stopping a Cheque as specified in the Tariff Brochure; and
 - (vi) the Client must return to ING any unused Cheques upon termination of (the Payment Service relating to) the Account.

25 Cash deposits

- 25.1 If the Service of cash deposits is available with the ING Office, the Client may if agreed during office hours on Business Days make cash deposits in the currency of the Account into the Account at the counter of the ING Office, if available, at a cash deposit machine on the premises of the ING Office, or in any other manner specified by the ING Office, provided the currency of the deposit is the lawful currency of the jurisdiction of the ING Office. The Client may make a deposit in another currency if so agreed by the ING Office.
- 25.2 When the Client deposits cash in accordance with Clause 25.1 of this Schedule, the Client gives its consent to ING to execute the Payment Order by signing the relevant form, entering its Electronic Signature or via any other method as required by ING. The Client may not subsequently revoke the Payment Order.
- 25.3 ING may impose restrictions regarding the minimum and/or maximum amount in coins and number of banknotes that may be deposited at a cash deposit machine. If the Client wishes to deposit coins at the counter of an ING Office or through other accepted means, additional requirements/restrictions may apply.
- 25.4 Cash that is deposited by the Client is counted and its authenticity may be verified. ING is obliged to confiscate counterfeit coins and banknotes and will not credit these to the Account nor will it provide any compensation for the confiscated coins and banknotes.

25.5 The Client will receive a receipt specifying the amount deposited. A transaction slip from a cash deposit machine is for information purposes only and the Client may not derive any rights therefrom. Notwithstanding Clause 30 and 31 of Schedule Payment Services, if the referenced amount is incorrect, the Client must report this immediately at the counter of the ING Office.

25.6 Cash deposits in the currency of the Account made on a Business Day will be credited to the Account at the latest the following Business Day, after which the amount is at the Client's disposal.

26 Cash withdrawals

26.1 If the Service of cash withdrawals in banknotes and/or coins is available with the ING Office, the Client may if agreed withdraw from the Account an amount in the currency of the Account during office hours on a Business Day at the counter provided the amount withdrawn is in the lawful currency of the jurisdiction of the ING Office. The Client may make a withdrawal in another currency if so agreed by the ING Office. Amounts withdrawn will be debited from the Account the same day.

26.2 When the Client withdraws cash in either banknotes or coins, the Client gives its consent to ING to execute the Payment Order by signing the relevant form and/or entering its Electronic Signature. The Client may not subsequently revoke the Payment Order.

26.3 In the event of withdrawals at the counter of an ING Office exceeding a specific amount, in certain banknote denominations or in a large amount of coins, ING may require that the Client notifies ING at least three Business Days in advance. ING may impose further restrictions regarding cash withdrawals.

27 Channels

27.1 If agreed, ING shall enable the Client to use an ING Channel to submit Payment Orders to and receive account-information from ING or third party PSP's. These services are only available with regard to Accounts added to the ING Channel.

27.2 If agreed, ING shall enable the Client to use a third party Channel to submit Payment Orders regarding an Account held with ING and/or ING will provide information through a third party Channel.

27.3 The services as indicated in this Clause 27 of this Schedule are only available if an agreement to forward, receive and execute Payment Orders and information is in full force and effect between ING and such PSP.

28 ING Channels and third party PSP's

28.1 This Clause 28 only applies in case an ING Channel is used by the Client to initiate Payment Orders or receive information with respect to an Account held with a third party PSP.

28.2 ING shall forward Payment Orders to third party PSP's and/or make available information from third party PSP's provided that:

- the use of the ING Channel for these services has been agreed;
- a Payment Order is given in compliance with the requirements and instructions of ING;
- the Accountholder has authorised the Client to add the Accountholder's Account(s) held with a third party PSP to the ING Channel, dispose of such Account(s), forward Payment Orders and/or receive information with respect to such Account(s); and
- the Accountholder has authorised the third party PSP where the Account is held to execute Payment Orders forwarded by ING and send information regarding the Account to ING.

28.3 The Client herewith expressly acknowledges and agrees that ING may rely that all authorisations as specified in this Clause are in full force and effect until ING has received written notice to the contrary.

28.4 The Client authorises ING to forward a Payment Order by entering its Electronic Signature or other agreed means of authorisation and submitting it or otherwise completing the initiating of the Payment Order.

28.5 Unless otherwise indicated in the Services Documents, ING shall forward a Payment Order to the third party PSP upon its receipt. In the event that the Payment Order is not received on a Business Day or is received after the relevant Cut-off Time, the Payment Order is deemed to have been received on the following Business Day.

28.6 ING shall only be responsible for forwarding the Payment Order to the third party PSP. ING is not liable for conformity of the forwarded Payment Order with the format standards as specified by the third party PSP. The execution of forwarded Payment Orders shall be subject to the conditions of the third party PSP and ING is not responsible for the execution of those instructions or liable for the actions of such third party PSP.

28.7 Unless otherwise indicated in the Services Documents, a Payment Order (to be) forwarded by ING may not be revoked with ING. Revocation of a Payment Order is only possible directly with the third party PSP responsible for the execution of the Payment Order and subject to its conditions.

29 Account information

ING will inform the Client of the Payment Transactions, including costs, fees and the Balance on its Account, and, if the Client is so authorised, a third party Account with ING with the frequency and in the manner as agreed. The Client can choose from the options that ING offers at the rates as specified in the Tariff Brochure. If agreed, ING will provide such information through the Channel of the Client or a third party.

30 Checking the information on Payment Transactions

The Client is obliged to check the information regarding Payment Transactions regarding an Account held with ING that has been provided to it by or on behalf of ING promptly when provided. If made available through a Channel the Client is obliged to check the information regularly and at least once a week. The Client is obliged to verify whether Payment Transactions have been executed by ING correctly and whether it has authorised the Payment Transactions that have been debited from the Account held with ING.

31 Contesting and approving of Payment Transactions

31.1 This Clause only applies to Payment Transactions regarding Accounts held with ING.

31.2 If the Client contests any of the information regarding Payment Transactions provided or made available to it by or on behalf of ING, or detects any incorrectly executed or unauthorised Payment Transaction, it must inform ING thereof without undue delay and no later than within a period of two months and take all reasonable measures to prevent any loss and/or damage. The period of two months starts on the Book Date or, if there is no Book Date, as from the date the relevant information has been provided or made available.

31.3 After the expiry of the period of two months referred to in Clause 31.2 of this Schedule, the Client is deemed to have approved the data and information provided or made available by or on behalf of ING as well as the Payment Transactions regarding the Account.

31.4 After the Client has notified ING in accordance with Clause 31.2 of this Schedule, ING will, at the Client's request, make immediate efforts to trace the Payment Transaction and inform the Client of the outcome.

32 Liability

32.1 In addition to the Clause 20.1 of the General Part, direct losses and damages only comprise, and ING will only be liable for:

- the costs of execution of the Payment Transaction;
- the interest that is charged by ING or which the Client does not receive from ING as a result of the non-execution, unauthorised or defective execution of the Payment Transaction; and/or

All other liability of ING arising out of, or in relation to, Payment Services and/or this Schedule is hereby excluded.

33 Term and termination

- 33.1 In addition to the termination grounds as indicated in Clause 26 of the General Part, ING is authorised to terminate the Agreement or terminate or suspend any specific Service, without being required to pay damages or any form of compensation, in case of the event as indicated in Clause 10.5 of this Schedule.

- 33.2 ING will upon termination of (the Payment Service relating to) the Account not be obliged to close the Account and/or repay any Credit Balance if for whatever reason the Account and/or (part of) the Available Balance has been blocked or the period for reject of Cheques credited to the Account has not expired.

- 33.3 ING is upon termination of the (Payment Service relating to) the Account entitled to convert any Balance into the lawful currency of the jurisdiction of the ING Office where the Account is held and book such Balance to another (new or existing) account with such ING Office. ING will determine the value on the basis of an exchange rate set by ING.

- 33.4 ING has the right to charge costs and fees as indicated in the Tariff Brochure for the termination of the Agreement or Payment Service.

- 33.5 ING has the right to close an Account and terminate the related Service without a notice period if during a period of 12 months no Payment Transaction has been executed on the Account.

- 33.6 As from the moment of closure of the Account ING shall not pay interest on any Credit Balance. Any Debit Balance is immediately due and payable and debit interest shall continue to accrue until actual payment of the Debit Balance.

Schedule SEPA Direct Debit Collections

1. Scope

- 1.1. If agreed, the ING Office will provide the Service "SEPA Direct Debit Collections".
- 1.2. SEPA Direct Debit Collections is a Service by which the Client can initiate Payment Orders to collect funds with its Debtors on the basis of a Mandate provided by such Debtors.
- 1.3. The conditions in the General Part, the Schedule Payment Services and this Schedule apply to the Service "SEPA Direct Debit Collections".
- 1.4. Any reference in this Schedule to "Agreement" is a reference to the Agreement regarding SEPA Direct Debit Collections.

2. Requirements for the Client

- 2.1. To be able to initiate SDD collections, the Client must have a valid and correct Creditor Identifier. Information how a Creditor Identifier can be obtained is available at ING. The Client shall comply with the requirements and procedures set by ING and with the rules of the most recent version of the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Rulebook. ING may amend its requirements and procedures at any time. ING shall give the Client prior notice thereof and specify within what period the Client must comply with the amended requirements or procedures.
- 2.2. The Client shall provide the Debtor with all relevant information about the SDD, including its Creditor Identifier and the unique Mandate reference, before submitting the first Payment Order relating to a Mandate. Furthermore, at least 14 calendar days prior to the Due Date of each SDD the Client shall give the Debtor notice of that Due Date and the amount of such SDD, unless another timeline is agreed between the Client and the Debtor.
- 2.3. ING is not a party to the underlying agreement between the Client and the Debtor. Any dispute between the Client and the Debtor concerning that agreement the Mandate and related payments, including any Refusal, Refund or Reject must be settled directly between the Client and the Debtor, without any involvement of ING.
- 2.4. The Client undertakes to limit the number of Refunds and Returns on an annual basis to a maximum of 2% each of the total number of Payment Orders.

3. Mandates

- 3.1. To initiate an SDD collection from the account of a specific Debtor, the Client must have a valid and duly signed Mandate from that Debtor. A Mandate must comply with ING's requirements, the rules of the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Rulebook and applicable laws and regulations. The Client shall be liable for the consequences of an invalid or incorrect Mandate.
- 3.2. The Client shall archive the original Mandate, any amendment thereto and, where applicable, information regarding its cancellation or expiry for the longer of the minimum retention period as required by applicable law and a period of 14 months after cancellation of the Mandate. Upon ING's or the Debtor PSP's request, the Client shall supply the original Mandate, a copy thereof and/or any other relevant information regarding an SDD collection within 7 Business Days. The obligations of this Clause 3.2 shall survive any termination of the Agreement.
- 3.3. If the Debtor revokes the Mandate, the Client shall immediately cease to submit Payment Orders and revoke any outstanding Payment Orders relating to such Mandate.
- 3.4. If the Client receives a request from or on behalf of the Debtor to debit future SDDs from another account held in the Debtor's name, it shall exclusively submit Payment Orders for debiting the Debtor's account specified in such request. The Client shall archive such request together with and as part of the Mandate in accordance with Clause 3.2 of this Schedule.

4. Submitting Payment Orders

- 4.1. An SDD can be a one-off collection or a collection in a series of recurring collections from the account of the same Debtor under the same Mandate. For a SEPA Direct Debit Core, a Payment Order for a one-off collection or the first collection in a series of recurring collections, as well as the first Payment Order submitted after the Client has received a request in accordance with Clause 3.4 of this Schedule must be received by ING at least 5 Business Days prior to the Due Date specified in such Payment Order. Payment Orders for subsequent collections in a series of recurring collections must be received by ING at least 2 Business Days prior to the Due Date specified in such Payment Orders. For a SEPA Direct Debit B2B, any Payment Order must be received by ING at least 1 Business Day prior to the Due Date specified in such Payment Order. For Batch Payment Orders deviating periods and specific Cut-Off Times may apply.
- 4.2. ING will forward the Payment Order to the Debtor PSP in accordance with the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Rulebook. In the event that a Payment Order is received after the applicable Cut-Off Time on the relevant Business Day in accordance with Clause 4 of this Schedule, ING may adjust the Due Date of such Payment Order in order to bring it in line with the timelines applicable to SDD under the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Rulebook. If the Due Date specified in the Payment Order is not a Business Day, ING may reschedule the Due Date to the next Business Day.
- 4.3. Without ING's prior written consent, the Client may not:
 - submit Payment Orders that exceed the maximum amount for each Payment Order as specified in the Agreement;
 - submit Batch Payment Orders with (i) an aggregate amount exceeding the maximum amount for each Batch Payment Order as specified in the Agreement, or (ii) a higher number of Payment Orders than the maximum number of instructions for each Batch Payment Order as specified in the Agreement; or

5. Execution of Payment Orders

- 5.1. The execution of a Payment Order results in the crediting of the Client's Account and the debiting of the Debtor's account on the Due Date. However, the execution of a Payment Order may be prevented by a Reject or a Refusal. For the avoidance of doubt, ING may also refuse or suspend the execution of a Payment Order in accordance with Clause 7 of the Schedule Payment Services.
- 5.2. ING will Reject a Payment Order if:
 - no amount has been credited to the Client's Account under the Mandate to which such Payment Order relates during a continuous period of 36 consecutive months;
 - ING has received the Payment Order more than (i) 5 Business Days after the Due Date specified in the Payment Order if it concerns a SEPA Direct Debit Core or (ii) 2 Business Days after the Due Date specified in the Payment Order if it concerns a SEPA Direct Debit B2B;
 - the Client fails to comply with Clause 4.3 of this Schedule;
 - the Payment Order has been submitted to ING more than 6 months prior to the Due Date specified in such Payment Order; or
 - the Debtor PSP is not reachable for SEPA Direct Debit B2B.
- 5.3. The crediting of the Client's Account as a result of an executed SDD is subject to the condition that the period of 14 months

6. Refunds

- 6.1. The Debtor is entitled to request via the Debtor PSP a Refund of an executed SEPA Direct Debit Core at the latest 8 weeks after the date on which it was debited from the Debtor's account. ING will accept such request, irrespective of its underlying reason, and refund to the Debtor PSP the amount of the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Core plus an amount to compensate the Debtor PSP for the related interest loss, if the request is received within such period. This refund by ING may take place until 61 calendar days after the execution date of the SEPA Direct Debit Core. The Client is obliged to reimburse ING for the total amount refunded by ING under this Clause to the Debtor PSP and pay for any interest paid or foregone by ING as a result of the crediting of the relevant SDD. To that end, ING is entitled to debit the Client's Account immediately for such amounts, whether or not with a Value Date equal to the date of the crediting of the relevant SDD. This Clause 6.1 does not apply to a SEPA Direct Debit B2B.
- 6.2. The Debtor is entitled to request via the Debtor PSP a Refund of an executed SEPA Direct Debit Core at the latest 13 months after the date on which it was debited from the Debtor's account, based on the claim that such SEPA Direct Debit Core was not authorised by the Debtor. If the Debtor PSP concludes, whether on the basis of the information provided by the Client in accordance with Clause 4.2 of this Schedule or otherwise, that the SEPA Direct Debit Core was executed without the Debtor's authorisation, ING will accept such request and refund to the Debtor PSP the amount of the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Core plus an amount to compensate the Debtor PSP for the related interest loss. This refund by ING may take place until 14 months after the execution date of the unauthorised SEPA Direct Debit Core. The Client is obliged to reimburse ING for the total amount refunded by ING under this Clause to the Debtor PSP and pay any interest paid or foregone by ING as a result of the crediting of the relevant SDD. To that end, ING is entitled to debit the Client's Account immediately for such amounts. This clause 6.2 does not apply to a SEPA Direct Debit B2B.
- 6.3. The Client acknowledges and agrees that under the SEPA Core Direct Debit Rulebook any decision by the Debtor PSP with respect to a Debtor's request as referred to in Clause 6.2 of this Schedule is final. The Client agrees that ING is not responsible or liable for any such decision.

7. Returns

The Debtor PSP is entitled to initiate a Return of an executed SDD in accordance with the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Rulebook. For a SEPA Direct Debit Core the Return may be initiated at the latest 5 Business Days after the execution date of the SDD. For a SEPA Direct Debit B2B this period is 2 Business Days. ING will accept such Return, irrespective of its underlying reason, and refund to the Debtor PSP the amount of the relevant SDD. This refund by ING may take place until 8 Business Days after the execution date of the relevant SDD if the Return concerns a SEPA Direct Debit Core, or until 5 Business Days after the execution date of the relevant SDD if the Return concerns a SEPA Direct Debit B2B. The Client is obliged to reimburse ING for the amount refunded by ING under this Clause to the Debtor PSP and pay any interest paid or foregone by ING to the Client as a result of the crediting of the relevant SDD. To that end, ING is entitled to debit the Client's Account immediately for such amounts.

8. Liability

- 8.1. ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage resulting from:
 - the Client submitting the same (Batch) Payment Order more than once and the forwarding thereof by ING to the Debtor PSP; or
 - a Reject or Refusal in accordance with Clause 5.1 or 5.2 of this Schedule.

- 8.2. ING will not be liable for the consequences of the execution of a Payment Order and any loss and/or damage arising therefrom, if the Unique Identifier provided by the Client does not belong to the Debtor as intended by the Client.

9. Termination

- 9.1. In addition to Clause 33 of Schedule Payment Services ING is entitled to terminate the Agreement with immediate effect if the relevant Account Agreement is terminated, without being required to pay damages or any form of compensation.
- 9.2. The obligations with regard to Payment Orders submitted before the termination of the Agreement will remain in full force and effect. Any claim that may rise after this Agreement has been terminated by the operation of Clause 6 or 7 of this Schedule will immediately become due and payable.

If the Client has assumed liability for another customer's obligations towards ING (e.g. as a surety), the lien shall not secure the debt resulting from the liability incurred before the maturity of the debt.

c) Exemptions from the lien

If funds or other assets come into the power of disposal of ING under the reserve that they may only be used for a specified purpose (e.g. deposit of cash for payment of a bill of exchange), ING's lien does not extend to these assets. The same applies to shares issued by ING itself (own shares) and to securities which ING keeps in safe custody abroad for the Client's account. Moreover, the lien extends neither to the profit-participation rights/profit-participation certificates (Genussrechte/Genussscheine) issued by ING itself nor to ING's securitized and non-securitized subordinated liabilities.

- b) Assignment by way of security
The claims underlying the cheques and bills of exchange shall pass to ING simultaneously with the acquisition of ownership in the cheques and bills of exchange; the claims also pass to ING if other items are deposited for collection (e.g. direct debits, documents of commercial trading).
- c) Special purpose items for collection
If items for collection are deposited with ING under the reserve that their countervalue may only be used for a specified purpose, the transfer or assignment of ownership by way of security does not extend to these items.
- d) Secured claims of ING
The ownership transferred or assigned by way of security serves to secure any claims which ING may be entitled to against the Client arising from the Client's current account when items are deposited for collection or arising as a consequence of the re-debiting of unpaid items for collection or discounted bills of exchange. Upon request of the Client, ING retransfers to the Client the ownership by way of security of such items and of the claims that have passed to it if it does not, at the time of such request, have any claims against the Client that need to be secured or if it does not permit the Client to dispose of the counter-value of such items prior to their final payment.

3) Limitation of the claim to security and obligation to release

- a) Cover limit
ING may demand that security be provided or increased until the realisable value of all security corresponds to the total amount of all claims arising from the banking business relationship (cover limit).
 - b) Release
If the realisable value of all security exceeds the cover limit on a more than temporary basis, ING shall, at the Client's request, release security items as it may choose in the amount exceeding the cover limit; when selecting the security items to be released, ING shall take into account the legitimate concerns of the Client or of any third party having provided security for the Client's obligations. To this extent, ING is also obliged to execute orders of the Client relating to the items subject to the lien (e.g. sale of securities, repayment of savings deposits).
 - c) Special agreements
If assessment criteria for a specific security item other than the realizable value or another cover limit or another limit for the release of security have been agreed, these other criteria or limits shall apply.
- ## 4) Realisation of security
- a) Option of ING
If ING realizes security, it may choose between several security items. When realizing security and selecting the items to be realized, ING shall take into account the legitimate concerns of the Client and any third party who may have provided security for the obligations of the Client.
 - b) Credit entry for proceeds under turnover tax law
If the transaction of realization is subject to turnover tax, ING shall provide the Client with a credit entry for the proceeds, such entry being deemed to serve as in-voice for the supply of the item given as security and meeting the requirements of turnover tax law (Umsatzsteuerrecht)."

- 7.3. The first sentence of Clause 19.5 of the General Part shall be replaced by the following: "Each ING Office shall be entitled to set-off any of its claims on the Client that are due and payable, against any due and payable claims the Client has on such ING Office, in the currency in which such claims are denominated."
